

The barbaric scene of the herdsman, the broker tied to the boat and shouting

The barbaric scene of the herd came to the fore. The brokers are very ruthlessly shouting at Gomata in a boat full of rivers. One such barbaric image was found in Gharsapalli village of Pusuguda panchayat in Kalimela block of Malkangiri.

It is alleged that the ambassador provided the information to Hussein. The human monster is tied up in a boat and is roaring. The Argus team, however, reached the illegal cattle market in Gharsapali village of Pusuguda panchayat in Kalimela block. There are weekly hats in the district every day of the week. The cattle are being handed over to Andhra brokers.

However, while Hindus are worshiped in Hinduism, some ignorant people have decorated the cow. The brokerage is keeping the wealth in the hands of Andhra brokers. The biggest question here is whether the police-administration is aware of this or not.
